İÇİMDEKİ ÇEVRE

A large display of various hand-drawn and hand-colored projects, including portraits, geometric patterns, and musical instruments, arranged on a table. The projects are organized into several rows and columns. The top row features portraits of men, some with text and musical notes. The middle rows show a variety of geometric patterns, including triangles, squares, and circles, some with text. The bottom row displays musical instruments, including guitars, drums, and other instruments. The projects are arranged on a table, and the background is a plain wall.
